

HUNTINGTON — UNIVERSITY —

Dept. of Business & Economics Summer Entrepreneurial Certification Course July 18—August 5, 2017

Vice President-elect, Mike Pence, visits
HU's Entrepreneurship students

- ◇ Earn a certificate in entrepreneurship in just three weeks
- ◇ Learn and gain experience in foundational principles of entrepreneurship such as cultivating ideas, building a team, marketing a concept, and creating a business plan from both teaching faculty and regional entrepreneurs
- ◇ Study in a classroom with both Chinese and American participants
- ◇ Participate in field experiences that include visits to regional small-business enterprises
- ◇ Participate in fun activities with classmates outside of class such as visiting Chicago, attending a baseball game, and going shopping

"The Summer Certification in Entrepreneurship program at Huntington University will help cultivate your entrepreneurial spirit and give you the skills necessary to be successful in a small business"
- Professor Troy Irick

Program Cost

Entrepreneurial Certification —$1,600
Entrepreneurial Certification for Undergraduate Credit — $1,950

All participants also pay a $1,300
housing/food/activity fee

